

Love one another as I have loved you

6th Sunday of Easter, Year B

Gospel Jn 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples:

'As the Father has loved me,
so I have loved you.
Remain in my love.
If you keep my commandments
you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments
and remain in his love.
I have told you this
so that my own joy may be in you and your joy be complete.
This is my commandment:
love one another,
as I have loved you.
A man can have no greater love
than to lay down his life for his friends.
You are my friends,
if you do what I command you,
I shall not call you servants any more,
because a servant does not know
his master's business;
I call you friends,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.
You did not choose me,
no, I chose you;
and I commissioned you
to go out and to bear fruit,
fruit that will last;
and then the Father will give you anything you ask him in my name.
What I command you
is to love one another.'

The people I love are...

Draw some pictures of the people you love and write a little bit about each of them.

Jesus is our friend. He loves us so much that he was prepared to give up his life for us.
What are some things you can do to show
Jesus that you are his friend?
