Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Zambia to help women overcome poverty and mothers give birth safely.

The Women's Cooperative, led by Sr Jane will provide women with the training and support required to break the cycle of scarcity, and the Chilonga Mission Hospital is determined to ensure every woman and baby receives a safe and dignified start to life.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to be 'Missionaries of hope among all peoples', and we invite you to extend Christ's love to those in need in Zambia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mission, or scanning the QR code.
Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.

Our Mission: BUILDING A LOVING CHRIST-CENTRED COMMUNITY

First Reading

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages. He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party. He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story. The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds. The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement. And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Second Reading

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing. The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.

Gospel

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else, 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Book Launch

2025 Advent Prayer & Reflection Groups

Please enter your details on the sign up sheet in the church and tick the appropriate options to join or host a group. The books will be available for collection before Advent commences or at the group you are attending for $5. You are welcome to reserve a copy of the book which will be made available after groups are catered for. The online group with Wilcannia-Forbes Diocese will again be available. Please contact Trevor (coopersandcompany@gmail.com) if you are interested in this group.

ONLINE ADVENT JOIN US TO REFLECT TOGETHER

The Sawtell Parish is again teaming up with the Diocese of Wilcannia-Forbes to offer a precious opportunity to make the most of your Advent. Join us online from 7:30-8:30pm on the Tuesday evenings of 2, 9, 16 and 23 Dec. We will follow the Journeying through Advent guide, and the resources will be emailed every week. Cost: free.
